

Jacksontown.

Mr. T. T. Buel delivered an interesting sermon in the U. B. church Sunday evening.

J. H. Griffith spent several days of last week at Gratiot as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank Wince.

J. F. Davis, our accomodating station agent, who has been very sick for several days, is improving rapidly.

Ed. M. Larason and wife spent Saturday and Sunday as the guests of F. A. Rickly and family of Kirkersville.

T. B. Kirk and wife, Benjamin Brownfield, John A. Harter, Jas. Cochran and Mrs. Cora Rodgers have been in attendance at the revival meetings of Rev. J. S. Dempster at Coaldale during a part of this week.

Miss May Latimer, who has been spending some time at the home of George Davis west of town has returned home in Pleasantville, Ohio.

Some Canadian lumbermen are engaged in getting out timber from the forest of Mr. Brumback, north of town. Some fine large beams are being cut which are intended for ship timbers. Two car loads of black walnut logs were shipped from this place to Hammerfest, Germany last week.

Mr. Hutzel, an old resident of this locality, spent several days of last week with his old friend, Abner Jury, whom he had not seen for forty years.

Mrs. Laura Vickers of Columbus, is visiting her father Mr. H. T. Black of this place. Mar 17-1898

Mr. and Mrs. Frank elegantly entertained the following named persons at dinner Tuesday: Mrs. Curtis Griffith of Newark, D. T. Crawshaw and wife, Clark Cochran and wife and daughter Sadie, John Hartman and wife, and Henry Hoskinson and wife of Hebron, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Harter, Bessie Brownfield and Mrs. Bertha Larason from this place, and Mrs. Anna Nelson and Mrs. Forsythe of Luray. All present were delightfully entertained.

Quite a number from distant points were in attendance at the Dempster lectures.

Freeman Jones is much better.

Mrs. Nancy Wiyiarch has gone to Lakeside to remain during the summer.

Ora Griffith has gone to Newark where he will be in the employ of his uncle, Curtis Griffith.

Jacksontown

1898
Curtis Griffith and family, of Newark, spent Sunday at the home of Frank Griffith.

Rev. Shook, of Pataskala, is holding meetings at the U. B. church this week.

Mrs. Anna Wince and son, of Gratiot, have been visiting the former's parents here.

Easter services will be held at the M. E. church Sunday night.

Dr. Jackson and family spent last Tuesday in Columbus, Dr. attending commencement.

C. W. Gunion has moved his family from Vanatta back to his property here.

Alfred Haulk, of Newark, took advantage of the good roads Sunday and came out on his wheel.

S. H. Layton and wife, of Mechanicsburg, spent several days here last week, the guests of the former's parents.

Frank Griffith took the first degree in the I. O. O. F. lodge at Hebron last Saturday night.

Mrs. Cephas Harter is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tom Lennox and daughter of Newark, spent Saturday and Sunday at Samuel Campbell's.

Richard Walters and wife and Chas. Paget and wife spent last Sunday at the home of John Hall, south of Hebron.

Jesse Wise and wife have moved from Fleatown to this place.

Mrs. S. H. Swartz and Mrs. Hannah Swartz spent last Sunday at Linnville.

Mrs. Frank Davis is spending several days with her parents at Columbus.

The election Monday passed off quietly and resulted in electing the following officers: Trustee, J. H. Crist; Supervisor, Chas McFarland; Assessor, David Woolard; Clerk, Dennis Orr.

Mr. Lemert, the blacksmith, has moved his family from this place, to Mrs. Osborn's place south of town.

Ridgely Tract.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Griffith, of Jacksontown, took supper with Mr. and Mrs. George Coyle Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sex went to Newark Friday.

Charles Yowell is going to build him a new house this spring.

Mrs. Dicking went to Newark Friday after her daughter Mary.

Frank Kinney expects to farm in October. Mrs. Sex this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush went to Hebron Friday evening.

Charles Grindle rode his wheel to Jacksontown Sunday.

Orville Coyle has quit school for this summer.

Tom Aldrige is clearing off a pond for Reese Sperry.

Harry Muselman is busy plowing.

Joe Tavener expects to saw logs for Mrs. Yowell in the future.

Olle Harter is staying with his uncle near Licking church.

George Fulk is busy plowing for oat

Ned Yowell who has been going to school at Columbus, returned home Friday.

April 14, 1898

D. M. Black of Newark, spent a week of last week with home friends.

Mr. Harry Buckland will have a public sale this week. He contemplates moving to Granville, so we understand. The surrounding neighborhood will be sorry to lose both him and his estimable wife, but we wish them success in their new undertaking.

Mr. Barney Seibert will move in Mrs. Chillie Grove's house the first of next month.

Mr. Wm. Moore has sold his farm to Mr. Kneller who takes possession the first of next month. Mr. Moore is making his home with Dan'l Stoltz and family near Hebron.

Miss Florence Rees of Columbus, was the guest of her uncle, Israel Rees and family, last week.

Linneas Grove has engaged to work for George Taylor the coming summer.

Rev. C. L. Collins will preach here next Sabbath morning, March 26th. Let everybody come.

Miss Gertrude Black is visiting in Coshocton, the guest of Mrs. Olive Denman, nee Temple.

The young people of this place will hold a mask social at the parsonage in the near future.

The Union Dramatic club will present a temperance drama the last week in this month. Proceeds for Sunday school.

Fred Moore, formerly of this place, now of Granville, who has been working in New Pittsburg, came home last week sick with what the Doctor claims is black measles. The house is quarantined.

Jennie Blade gave a party last Tuesday night to a few of her young friends. Games were the order of the evening.

Union Station can again boast of a doctor, in the person of a young man from Linnville. We wish him success.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black attended the funeral of the latter's cousin, Dr. Lrimore, at Outville last Friday.

Mr. Sam Taylor's family has been having a siege of the mumps for a change, but they are all convalescent.

Mrs. Byron Buckland is still on the sick list, also Mr. Wilson Stone. We hope for each a speedy recovery.

Miss Ruth Hillbrant expects to leave the first of next month for Manchester, Iowa, to live with her sister Mrs. Lusk. We are sorry to see her go, yet wish her success in her new home.

The commencement exercises passed off nicely Tuesday evening. Quite a large crowd was in attendance, and the graduates delivered their orations in an excellent manner. President Purinton of Denison, delivered an able address which was duly appreciated by all present. A banquet, consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade, was given by the class after the exercises, which proved a success both financially and socially. Those present from a distance were as follows: Ira Brownfield, Mrs. Dr. Wolcott and Mrs. Willis Coryell of Columbus, Miss Minnie Fristoe, Mary Pyle, Sylvia Larason, Emma Hupp, R. W. Howard, C. S. Howard and family of Newark, C. Mae Burkett, Anna Whitmer, Prof. Kirk and John Wittue of Hebron. Excellent music was furnished by the Newark Mandolin club.

Miss Gertrude Geiger of Newark, is the guest of friends here.

Mrs. Ella Harter and Mrs. Rebecca Harter, visited at the home of Jonathan Rusk of near Wagram, Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Justice of near Atherton, is very ill with pneumonia.

L. W. Perry of Granville, was in town Tuesday evening.